

Terms for submitting Artworks

You agree that your submission does and will not violate any right of any third-party, including copyright, trademark, privacy, personality or other personal or proprietary right.

You also agree that if we collectively agree to start production of your artwork, Dead Media Industries will own exclusive distribution rights to your artwork (in poster format), so we can keep our limited edition promise.

That's it. We share profits fifty-fifty. You submit, we do the rest of the work. Agree?
